

5 heures de cours hebdomadaires avec un partage de 2,5 h d'enseignement en anglais et en français équivalent à un partage de 50/50 du volume annuel en histoire et géographie soit 140-150 heures.

Histoire	Géographie
Theme 1: The Relationship of Societies to Their Past History and Memory: the Vietnam War	Theme 1. Understanding a complex world
Theme 2: Ideologies and Public Opinion since the end of the 19th century. Case Study: Watergate	Theme 2. The Dynamics of Globalization Question 1. A The globalization of economic activity: a global product; mobility, flows and networks (12h) Question 2. Globalization of space: a global city and Maritime spaces
Theme 3: World Powers and International Tensions USA since 1918 China since 1949 Middle East since the end of WWI	Theme 3. Development - Question 1. The Americas -Question 2. Africa - Question 3. Asia
Theme 4: The scales of governance in the world from 1945 to today Question 1. The nation-scale France since 1946 Question 2. The continental scale Europe since 1948 Question 3. World economic governance since 1944
History Theme 5: The USA since 1945 Possible case Studies : The Great Society Reagan and Rise of Conservatism, Religion and society	